Not yet convinced that Book DJ is the future of connecting people with talent?

Take a look at the feedback left for us by real promoters and DJ's

"Without doubt the easiest time I have ever had booking a DJ! I was able to get a big name DJ at the last minute thanks to @BookDJ and the whole night was a success!"

Mark Cliffe@StereoBarNewcastle

Feedback provided via Twitter

"I've only been using Book DJ a couple of weeks but it's already become my go-to site for hiring talented DJ's. No more having to deal with unresponsive agencies and rude managers. The search function is easy to use and also gives enough options so I can find the ideal DJ"

Stuart Little, Promoter

Feedback provided via Google Plus

"I've been a DJ for quite a few years now, and was initially hesitant about creating a profile and leaving my agency to deal direct, but I need not have worried :-) I have had a steady stream of gigs coming in, and dealing directly with managers and promoters has meant that I'm not having to take offers from agencies where expectations have not been set about the music I play and the equipment I expect to use"

El Chappo

Feedback provided via Facebook

"DJ was easy to communicate with and turned up on time. Music selection was very good, would use again"

Julian Wassing, Energy 52 Manager

Feedback provided via Facebook

"Been getting loads of gigs thanks to @BookDJ"

Tricky Deejay@TrickyDJ

Feedback provided via Twitter

"The industry has been crying out for something like @BookDJ for so long. As a promoter it can be hard to get top names unless you personally know them. @BookDJ gives me a level playing field, thank you so much!"

Alex B@BosworthHeights

Feedback provided via Twitter

"Easy to use and arrange, DJ found was at a good price and played a decent range of music, I would use again"

Steve Arbon, Manager Mr Smiths

"This site is an absolute godsend! Being able to communicate with DJ's directly makes life a lot easier for someone in my job! Big names like Richie Hawtin you will need to book well in advance, but less expensive DJ's can be booked with little notice if required and still pull off a banging set! We also had to hire some equipment, I would say the prices are very reasonable and worked fine"

Brian Little, Promotions Big Bar

Feedback provided via Google Plus

"Booked a DJ and hired equipment. The decks and mixer were in excellent condition, the @BookDJ twitter team were really helpful"
